WASHINGTON NEWS.

Sargent Defends the Reputation of the American Hog.

It is Believed that Crook has Crossed the Border.

The Mexican Legation Furnish Some Information.

The American Hog Defended.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Sargent writes the department of state from Berlin, under date of April 13th, that in consequence of reports published in the continental press that an alarming outbreak of trichinosis, caused by eating American pork, had occurred among the garrison at Tilsit, Germany, he had instructed the nearest consular officer to make an investigation and report the facts. The published statements were positive as to the source of the disease and stated that thirteen deaths had already occurred. On examination it was found that fourteen cases of trichinosis had occurred among the soldiers of the garrison at Tilsit. They were slight and the persons attacked had been restored to health. The meat which produced the disease was not issued to the soldiers in the garrison's rations and beyond that there is no evidence whatever of its origin. The general surgeon of the first army corps and the mayor of Tilsit said it was impossible to obtain proof whether the pork was native or foreign origin. All that is known is that the soldiers attacked had obtained the meat outside the garrison, and probably from their relatives in town. It is probable that the meat was the native raw product, so largely consumed among the lower classes of Germany.

Too Late to Stop Crook

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The war department has not as yet received from General Crook a reply to the telegram sent by General Sheridan on the 28th ult., nor has any official information been received in regard to his having crossed into Mexico. The press report that he had passed the boundary line before the cautionary telegram could have reached him however is fully credited at the department.

The Mexican Border Question.

WASHINGTON, May 3. At the Mexican legation some anxiety seems to be felt that the attitude of the Mexican government in relation to crossing of border by United States troops in pursuit of hostile Indians should be correctly stated. It is thought the circumstances under which orders were issued last Saturday to General Crook notifying him to adhere strictly to the terms of the treaty between the two countries have not been fully explained and a wrong impression may be created. Application of this government for modification of the convention was made some time ago and refused, at a critical moment when Crook had crossed the border. The circumstances as explained to an associated press reporter who called at the legation to night, are as follows: On the 28th of July, 1882, the Mexican government signed at this city an agreement with the United States government, by virtue of which regular troops of each country were authorized to pass over the border in the territory of the other in pursuit of hostile Indians, under certain limitations, which at the time were thought convenient and desirable by both contracting parties. On the 28th of April the state department proposed to the Mexican government, through the legation here, material modifications of the agreement of July, 1882, which were in substance that commanders of United States and Mexican troops be authorized to change the terms of the agreement, when in their judgment it was advisable, so that the commander of either army might cross the border with his troops to attack hostile Indians at any time. Senor Romero, the Mexican minister, cabled terms of the proposition to his government and on the 26th received answer from the Mexican secretary of state to the effect that no change could be made except in the shape of a new treaty, which must be ratified by the Mexican senate; but that the Mexican government were ready to consider all modifications proposed by the United States and would accept such as in their opinion were calculated to attain the object of that agreement, which as they understood it was speedy destruction to hostile Indians. It is explained that the Mexican constitution requires the consent of the Mexican senate to the passing of foreign troops through Mexican territory, the same formality being necessary for this as for the ratification of a treaty, the Mexican executive not being empowered to act in either case without approval of the senate. No official information has been received at the legation of the crossing of Crook's forces, but it is thought they are in Mexico, and that General Crook's movement is the result of mutual agreement between him and the Mexican commander, under which the former had been enabled to enter Mexico with the consent of the Mexican government and co-operation of Mexican troops. The opinion is expressed at the legation that failure of the Mexican government to accept immediately modifications of the existing agreement proposed by the United States will not interfere with the success of General Crook's operations against the Indians.

The law which will regulate extradition proceedings in cases of persons, mentioned, should their surrender be demanded, is contained in article X in the treaty of August 9th, 1842.

Civil Service Rules.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Civil Service Commissioners Eaton and Gregory held a long conference with Postmaster General Gresham respecting civil service rules. Dr. Gregory made an examination of the records of the appointment division with a view to familiarizing himself with the method of making appointments in that department. It is understood similar visits will be made by the commissioners to other executive departments.

Bold Burglars.

DENVER, May 3.—Mr. Charles E. Wise, a conductor on the Denver & Rio Grande, on returning to his house at No. 285 Tenth street at about 12 o'clock last night, was met at the door by a strange man, who, just as Mr. Wise was about to open the door, slammed it in his face and disappeared. A gold watch chain was missing. The burglar probably had a pal. They ransacked Mr. Wise's rooms from one end to the other and had packed up a quantity of goods for removal. So quietly did they do their work that the family in the other side of the house did not hear them.

Building in Denver.

DENVER, May 3. During April Building Inspector Willoughby issued permits for the construction of 65 buildings, to cost $177,105. This is not so good a showing as was made in the preceding month, when permits were issued for the construction of 75 buildings at a cost of $305,480. Applications for permits are coming in rapidly and a large number will be issued this month.

Southern Pacific Mails.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Robt. J. Creighton, special postal commissioner of New Zealand, had an interview with the secretary of state and demonstrated the importance to American commerce of continuing direct mail service with New Zealand and Australia via San Francisco. He says that when the service was inaugurated in 1871, the trade of the United States with Australia was $2,700,000 annually, while last year it was over $17,000,000. The colonially subsidized steamship companies have been carrying U. S. mail to South Pacific countries free, while the United States charged $90,000 annually for transporting British and colonial mail across America. New Zealand now proposes to continue the contract on condition that the United States will consent to let the ocean service offset the continental. Secretary Frelinghuysen promised to give the matter careful consideration.

No Chinese Need Apply.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The Hawaiian minister authorizes a denial of the published statement that the Hawaiian government had passed laws forbidding the landing of Chinese in that country. He says the government has protested against the embarkation of Chinese at Hong Kong and other ports for Hawaii and has given notice that steps will be taken to prevent their landing.

Robbed of $24,000.

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 3.—Information has reached this city that Major Wesson, paymaster, had been robbed of a valise containing $24,000 in currency while occupying a sleeper on the Texas & Pacific near Sweet Water Sunday last. The officer was on his way to pay the troops at Fort Bliss. He is now at Colorado City and gives only an indefinite account of the affair.

SAN ANTONIO, May 3.—General Augur and other army officers at military headquarters have received information of the robbery of Major Wesson, paymaster in the U. S. army. Their figures however placed the amount at $15,000 instead of $24,000. General Augur has confidence that the robbers will be caught and the money secured. Major Wesson is held in the highest esteem by his fellow officers and not the slightest suspicion rests on him.

A Free Fight.

KANSAS CITY, May 3.—The Times' Atchison special says: A serious affray which occurred at Eden, a small town in this county, Sunday night, has just been reported. About 40 young men from farms in the vicinity gathered in a saloon for the purpose of a frolic. Disputes arose over a trivial matter and a free fight ensued in which knives and pistols were used. James Volmer, Polk Kelly, two Baker brothers and three brothers named McCarthy were wounded, but how seriously is not stated. An active movement is on foot to punish the offenders.

A. T. & S. F. Earnings.

BOSTON, May 3.—Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe railroad statements for February and March show a gain in net earnings of the main line since January 1st of $320,000, or 30 per cent. The Kansas City and Lawrence and south branch gained $60,000 in net earnings.

Mrs. Gaines' Success.

NEW ORLEANS, May 3.—In the case of Myra Clark Gaines against the city of New Orleans the report of the master in chancery is confirmed and interest added. Mrs. Gaines gets judgment against the city for $1,925,667.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, May 3. Governments unchanged. Stocks opened irregular and firm; at a fractional advance, then receded ⅛ to ⅜; subsequently strong. At 11 sold up ⅛ to ⅜; after which generally strong. At noon there was an advance of ⅛ to ¾. Denver and Louisville leading. Speculation quiet.

GENERAL NEWS.

Result of the Races at Pueblo Yesterday.

Spieche Arrested, and His Rebellion Crushed.

Bills Found Against No. 1, Walsh and Sheridan.

Pueblo Races.

PUEBLO, May 3.—The races were well attended and some excellent contests were witnessed. In the mile and a quarter dash, Startle, Trinidad Boy, and Annapolis were named. It was an easy race for Startle, he winning in 2:27½; Trinidad Boy second; Annapolis third.

There were six entries for the trotting race for horses that had never beaten 2:45. B. C. Holly's Creepy sold first in the pools and would have undoubtedly won the race had a "ringer" not been entered. Creepy, Maggie Hunter, Comanche Boy, Blue Cloud, Roan Charley and Llewellen were the entries. Creepy won the first heat; Comanche Boy second; Blue Cloud third; Maggie Hunter fourth; Roan Charley and Llewellen being distanced. The second heat was also won by Creepy; but on the third heat she was shut out by Blue Cloud; Comanche Boy, second, Maggie Hunter, third. Blue Cloud took the next two heats and the race; Comanche Boy, second. Time for the five heats, 2:37½, 2:39, 2:40, 2:40½ and 2:48½.

To-morrow occurs the grand race for all trot, the mile heat race, and also the matched mile heat race. In the free for all trot, Ada Paul, Pilot, Colonel Davis and Sir Gibbie are entered. Pilot sold first choice to-night, Ada Paul, second. To-morrow will be the biggest day of the meeting.

The Creek Rebellion Crushed.

LITTLE ROCK, May 3.—A telegram from Indian territory reports that Spieche, the Creek Indian rebel, having failed to go Fort Gibbons as he promised Captain Bates, U. S. A., he would do, the latter arrested him and two of his chiefs Juckabatch and Navijo. Spieche's band then scattered and were pursued by the troops, and sixty-five of them, together with a large number of women and children captured and taken to Fort Gibbons. This has completely broken up the disaffected faction and no further trouble is apprehended from them.

Irish Criminals.

DUBLIN, May 3.—The grand jury has returned bills for murder against Peter Tynan, No. 1; Jno. Welsh and P. J. Sheridan. Welsh and Sheridan are in America and Tynan is supposed to be there. It is understood that the government will demand their extradition. The grand jury also found true bills against Lawrence Hanlon, James and Joseph Mullett and Daniel Delaney on a charge of attempting to murder Juror Dennis Field, and for conspiracy to murder a number of others. James Mullett was arraigned this morning on the charge of conspiracy to murder, and pleaded guilty to the same charge. Several of the other men charged with the same offense are expected also to plead guilty. Lawrence Hanlon was next arraigned on the charge of attempting the murder of Dennis Field, pleaded not guilty and his trial commenced.

A man named Hawkins who has been arrested here will be arraigned to-morrow with Eugene Kingston and others, on a charge of conspiracy to murder Poole, the Fenian centre who had turned informer.

LONDON, May 3.—A rumor prevails here that the United States government had been requested to extradite Tynan, Welsh and Sheridan.

DUBLIN, May 3. The grand jury were sent back to reconsider the case of Thomas Martin, the bill against whom they had rejected, and after again deliberating for some time returned a true bill against him.

The grand jury also found true bills against Edward O'Brien and Edward MacCafferty, for participation in the murder of Cavendish and Burke.

BELFAST, May 3.—Two hundred persons known to be members of the Patriotic Brotherhood have left Cross Maglen, County Armagh, and vicinity, because of revelations made recently implicating them in unlawful acts.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—It is learned at the state department that no demand has been received for the extradition of any person referred to in the recent cable dispatch as having been connected with murders in Ireland.

DUBLIN, May 3. Now that true bills for murder have been found it is considered no longer open to the United States to refuse extradition to Sheridan, Walsh and Tynan. It is believed Tynan will turn informer.

Dramatic Festival.

CINCINNATI, May 3.—Interest in the dramatic festival does not flag in the least. The audience to-night at Othello numbered as many as on the opening night. The cast included McCullough as Othello, Barrett as Iago and Mary Anderson as Desdemona. All were in fine voice and with an unusually good support produced a performance which is regarded as the most finished yet presented. There was absolutely no flaw nor blunder in the management. The scenery and play moved without halting and was ended at 11:04. The scenery was only second to that of Julius Cæsar and made a succession of surprises. The bed chamber scene in the last act exceeded all expectation.

Mysterious Murder.

ST. LOUIS, May 3.—Advices from Indian Territory say John A. Neal, of Boston, whose brothers are among the heaviest hide and leather dealers in Massachusetts, was murdered on the ranch of the Kansas City Cattle company some days ago. He was in the territory for his health and living in a dug-out with two cattle herders. On the morning of his murder his companions left the dug-out as usual to attend the cattle, leaving Mr. Neal reading. In a couple of hours one of the men returned and found Neal dead. The man immediately started for a camp six miles away for help, and when he returned it was found that Neal had been killed with a hatchet, which had been sunk in his head, and that he had been robbed of two hundred and fifty dollars, a watch and other valuables. There is no clue to the murderer.

Fires.

NASHVILLE, May 3.—Fire broke out to-night in the store of Rutledge & Bro., at Tullehama, on the Nashville and Chattanooga road, destroying 30 houses, including the railroad depot, telegraph and express offices.

FORT FAIRFIELD, Maine, May 3.—Fire last night turned 12 families into the street. Nine stores and shops were burned. Loss unestimated.

A Maniac's Deed.

KANSAS CITY, May 3.—The Journal's Osage special says: About 2 o'clock this morning Frank Meyerstrick, living near the city limits drove his wife and children from the house into a beating storm, set fire to the dwelling, then mounted guard with a shot gun and kept the neighbors at bay until the building was consumed with its contents, causing a loss of $2,500. Meyerstrick is insane and will be taken to an asylum.

A Street Blown Up.

PETERBOROUGH, Eng., May 3.—Priestgate street, one of the principal thoroughfares of the city, was partially blown up last night. Great alarm was caused by the explosion, as it was thought to be the work of dynamite fiends, but it is now believed due to the ignition of gas in a sewer under the street. Houses on the street were much damaged.

A Fatal Custom.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—A Salt Lake special says: "Out of 56 deaths in April 28 were children. The latter are attributed to the peculiar Mormon administration termed 'laying on hands.'"

LABOR AND CAPITAL.

Coal Miners and Operators Still Differ About Wages.

Iron Manufacturers Expect a Strike June First

Affecting One Hundred Thousand Laborers.

The Great Strike.

PITTSBURG, May 3.—The coal miners' strike developed nothing particularly new today. Miners are confident of success, while operators manifest no uneasiness as to the final result and claim that two weeks will see the greater part of the miners working at the three cent rate. Miners suggest that differences between employers and employes be settled by appeal to process set forth in the voluntary trades tribunal act and ask operators to petition the court for a tribunal. Secretary Flannery says if they do this miners will assert promptly that they don't want to strike, but feel it a duty to resist any encroachment of capital on their rights. If operators refuse the petition miners will petition themselves. This afternoon an official call for an inter-state convention of miners here May 15th was issued.

Gloomy Outlook in the Iron Trade.

PITTSBURG, May 3.—The second conference of iron manufacturers and the Amalgamated Association committee, which was held this afternoon, lasted only 15 minutes. President Jarrett, on behalf of the workmen stated that no reduction in wages would be accepted. Manufacturers made no response, but moved to adjourn sine die, which was done. Both committees had secret meetings later, but declined to divulge their proceedings. The workmen profess to believe manufacturers will withdraw their demand for reduction and no strike will ensue June 1st. Manufacturers state that workmen are mistaken in their view, and if the reduction of 10 to 20 per cent. is not accepted the mills will shut down June 1, and remain closed till the men come to terms. Manufacturers freely state that they expect a strike and have booked no orders for delivery after June 1. The feeling of the general public is gloomy. Near 100,000 men are employed in the mills of the west, including laborers, and their idleness will greatly increase depression of trade.

Attempt to Poison a Family.

CLEVELAND, May 3. A diabolical attempt was made to poison the Specce family at Delaware last evening. The members of the family were absent at the funeral of the husband, when an unknown person put strychnine in the tea kettle. Tea was made from the water on their return, but the bitterness was detected in the tea by a member of the family and a physician was sent for, who discovered strychnine crystals in the kettle.

The False Prophet Defeated.

CAIRO, May 3. A telegram has been received from Col. Hicks reporting that on the 29th ult. he had an engagement with 5,000 rebels. The battle which lasted half an hour, resulted in the defeat of the rebels with 500 killed including the lieutenant general of Elmahdi, the false prophet, and many wounded. The Egyptian loss was slight. Col. Hicks praised the gallantry of the Egyptian troops.

The Port Said Disturbance.

ALEXANDRIA, May 3. Half a company of the Forty-second Highlanders have been ordered to Port Said where a commission is inquiring into the cause of disturbance.

Last Night's Blaze.

Shortly before eleven o'clock last night the burning of a small shanty on the west side of the alley in the rear of the livery stable of Messrs. Stevens & Rouse caused a general alarm. The department responded promptly and in a very short time had two streams upon the fire, which was soon extinguished. Fortunately there was no wind at the time otherwise the flames might have communicated with the livery barn and resulted in the destruction of much valuable property. The building belonged to the Cone estate and was of but little value. It was unoccupied at the time and there is no accounting for the origin of the fire unless it was accidentally started by some tramp who was sleeping in the building.

MINING MATTERS.

Notes Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

MINING INVESTMENTS.

New York Produce Exchange Bulletin.

"It is a common remark among dealers in securities that mining stocks, as a rule, are worthless, and they will neither buy themselves nor counsel their friends to make investments in them. To so low an ebb have they fallen in the estimation of superficial observers, that for investment purposes they are not, nor have they been for months sought; and yet any unprejudiced person, after a careful survey of the history of mining of the last few years, cannot fail to reach the conclusion that practical mining for the precious metals has met with a success not accorded to other pursuits—that, in fact, the profits arising are exceptionally great. Startling as the statement may seem, it is none the less borne out by an array of facts, that more money has been realized in dividends on mining stocks, in proportion to their capitalization, than has been received from the railroads of the country. The fact being that the mines have paid since 1870 more than 27 per cent. on their quoted value. During that period, according to an eminent authority on the subject, forty-two odd dividend mines, which have a current value of $47,558,902, have paid $12,529,836, and thirty, which may be called new, having a value of $24,105,750, have paid $7,465,300. One mine has paid 136 consecutive dividends, and thirteen others have paid over twenty dividends each. The same authority gives the total market value of the above named mines at $71,[illegible], and the total dividends paid as having reached the enormous amount of $131,614,076.

"When these results are compared with the net earnings of railroads, it will be seen that of the two, mining has been much the more profitable. On a total capitalization of about $3,000,000 less than 25 per cent. has been paid. And yet the stocks of roads that never have, and in all probability never will pay a dividend, are actively dealt in by speculators, and even sought as permanent investments, in the delusive hope that in the future they may become valuable.

"That there are mines which have not paid, and may never pay dividends, is a fact, but a good mine, well managed, will always pay. Many of the mines whose stock is represented at the boards, have reached such figures as to make them a better investment than almost anything of which we have any knowledge. It may be said of them as a rule that the whole list, with but few exceptions, offer opportunities for investments which cannot fail in the near future to bring large profits. There can be no question in the minds of men who possess a knowledge of the richness and permanence of our gold, silver and copper mines that the time is coming, and, indeed, is even now at hand, when no more rational disposition of capital can be effected than a judicious application of it in the working of mines. Years of unremitting labor have brought the mines to a condition of development which furnishes a basis for close calculation as to results. Experience has brought with it a knowledge of practical and economical working; improved methods of treating ore have given greater value to mine products; the business in the future will be prosecuted with a more complete understanding of the necessities of the situation. In view of all these facts, it seems strange that the stocks of mines having an ascertained value, whose developments are constantly increasing and adding to the certainty of results, should not be in active demand at the prices now ruling."

RED MOUNTAIN.

From the Red Mountain Review.

A rich strike is reported about a mile and a half from the Yankee Girl. The mineral, of which there is said to be a 6 foot vein, is a carbonate formation running 300 ounces in silver. We are at present unable to learn the name of the lucky owners but will give our readers a complete report in next issue.

Thomas Kennedy and James Steinbach located the Scotch Girl, a claim in the gulch above the Robinson, last September. The work of sinking the shaft was begun and has proceeded slowly up to the present time. This shaft is now down 33 feet, and the whole bottom of it is in solid mineral—black copper, galena and iron. The owners are highly elated with their prospect of a fortune, and another mine is added to the productions of camp.

The Congress shaft was cut by the crosscut on Monday night, after running through eight feet of solid mineral. This with the mineral in the shaft makes an ore body for the Congress second to none in the district. The cross-cut tapped the shaft, which is 80 feet deep and in solid mineral, nearly all the way, about eight feet too high. The Congress has made several shipments of ore. The ore is arsenical copper and mill runs from 15 to 20 ounces in silver, from ⅜ to 1½ ounces in gold, and carries from 25 to 60 per cent. in copper, and its average value per ton is about $100. This mine shipped over 100 tons of ore last fall, and a large amount of ore is now on the dump.

THE SILVER CITY STRIKE.

Albuquerque Journal.

The interest in the recent strikes near Silver City is increasing with new discoveries of ore deposits. A sale of a quarter interest in one of the latest finds was made to-day for $15,000 cash, and $20,000 was offered for another quarter and refused. More than a hundred claims have been taken up and there is apparently room for hundreds more. The entire locality of the strikes seems to be a vast field of silver ore.

THE CLIMAX.

Leadville Chronicle.

Since the adoption of the lease system the Climax has figured conspicuously upon the bulletins of producing mines, and probably there is no property in the state which was drawn into prominence with more hurried haste. For three years it laid practically abandoned, and in January last it resumed operations under a lease, Mr. L. J. Laws, who is the owner of one-half interest in the mine, assuming the management. He has ably certified his skill as a mine manager, and his ability has been attested by the phenomenal output of the property. It was under his chaperonage that the reporter settled his pedals firmly upon the bucket and passing two abandoned levels disembarked on the third, at a depth of over 200 feet. Pursuing this level for a short distance drift No. 3 is reached, and penetrating a compound of candle light and darkness, he comes upon a crosscut some 40 feet in length, which connects No. 2 and No. 3 drifts. In this crosscut there is at present immense quantities of crystallized lead, sand carbonates and some galena, and it is furnishing mineral which carries from 35 to 100 ounces in silver and from 10 to 60 per cent. in lead. In the crosscut between drifts No. 1 and 2, in which there has been considerable stoping, $22,000 worth of ore was extracted in 14 days, and the stoping continues under a full force. The body of mineral from which this was taken consisted of gray sand and galena, and above it in an upraise from the No. 2 drift a large amount of the same quality of ore, together with chlorides, is exposed. In this upraise from which they are stoping out mineral, the walls which are 8 feet square are impregnated with high grade mineral, which runs 175 ounces in silver and from 40 to 60 per cent. in lead. About 10 feet of this mineral is here disclosed, from which they are now shipping. Recently a new quality of mineral has been found which the miners have designated as "cornmeal," from the fact of its resemblance to it, and it has been discovered to carry an average of 62 per cent. in lead. It is a very peculiar ore, and a three foot body is now being worked. The mine is said to be in a better condition at present than at any previous time, and it is keeping up its average shipments of from 20 to 36 tons per day. It is free from water, and Manager Laws is conducting his work upon a basis of economy that others might emulate to their advantage.

Manager of the GAZETTE.

Mr. Harry Iles who has been the city circulator of the GAZETTE for nearly three years has sold out his circulation to Mr. Adney Hemenway, in order that he may give closer attention to other business. He has been connected with the paper in various ways for nearly ten years. We wish him great success in his new ventures. Mr. A. Hemenway succeeds him and will give his exclusive attention to our circulation and collections.

At present the free trade democrats are so much divided on the tariff issue, that Randall's election as speaker is almost certain, though the majority of his party are for free trade. Cox, Blackburn and Carlisle are free trade leaders but are all candidates for the speakership. Randall on the other hand will have the solid undivided support of all democrats in favor of protection.

The Gunnison Review-Press has the following interesting item in regard to a new colony going into Delta on the new Utah line: "We understand that a colony of twelve hundred persons, mostly from Kansas and "Iowa, have selected land on the Mesa, south-"west of Delta, their grounds covering an area "of 50,000 acres, and extending from Mont-"rose to the mouth of the Uncompahgre. "They are taking out a ditch eight feet at the "bottom and five feet deep. Five miles of it "is completed and has water running in it."

The quarrel over the appointment of Mr. Keim as chief examiner of the civil service commission is very foolish. Some rather extreme reformers are objecting because he is a friend of Cameron. This is arguing from the spoils side. The idea of civil service reform is to put men into office because of their special fitness for that office, regardless of their political associations. This is the right idea. Fitness to discharge the duties of an office and good character is all that should be required. But the instant the commission takes notice of political affiliations and associations, it will put the civil service where it has been for fifty years. Friends of reform should not object to a stalwart appointment on stalwart grounds. They throw away their cause by doing it.

The Republic still continues its whining about the grading of Cascade avenue in front of the hotel. It first opposed the grading by the city, but when nearly every taxpayer in the city signed a petition asking that the city should do this grading, the Republic was compelled to change its line of attack. It now attacks the price paid on the ground that there was no competition in the letting of the contract and intimates that the council acted in an unbusiness like way. The members of the council did make inquiries and the prices asked by teamsters here in the city were from 35 to 50 cents a cubic yard. As another party offered to do the work for 20 cents a cubic yard, the offer was accepted. It is a very low price as many of our readers may easily discover by enquiring of any of our teamsters. The members of the council are serene about these attacks as they know they have obtained a much better contract for the city than could be obtained from any other party.

The Times is still silent about its printing bill. The largest item of controversy is that of printing the legislative bills. It agreed to furnish 240 copies of each bill at 66 cents a page. This order was increased to 300 and the charge was doubled. It was doubled on the theory that the bid was for each 240 or less copies, but the contract does not say this. If the extra 60 copies had been ordered separately there would be no question about the fairness of the price. But the 60 extra were ordered at the same time, and it was certainly a good price to charge proportionately. This would have added a sixth to 66 and made it $1 00 instead of $1.72 per page. Our state officers ought to allow for extra work in proportion to the rest of the bid. This practice of taking the state printing at a rate that is sure to be a loss and then making money on extras to more than make good the loss ought to be stopped. The bill appears on its face to be wrong. The Times should explain.

Mr. Pender, in proposing the health of Dr Green, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, at the recent dinner given in the latter's honor in London, gave an interesting statement of the growth and present prosperity of the Western Union Telegraph company. It must surprise Englishmen who are simply familiar with English telegraph lines. He said: "Dr Green presides over a "company with $80,000,000 capital, 11,000 "stations and 20,000 employes. The company "owns 150,000 miles of poles and 425,000 "miles of wire. During my visit to America "and Canada I found no part or district without a Western Union station. The car "wherein I traveled was stopped by a small "white flag, and a telegraphic message handed "me containing news of the Tel el Kebir victory. I replied, congratulating Sir Garnet "Wolseley, and I was afterward told by him "that before the sunset of the same day he "had an answer (Applause). The progress "of the Western Union Telegraph company "has been most astonishing. In 1866 there "were 75,000 miles of wire and 2,500 employes, the profits were over $2,500,000; "they are now $8,000,000. The company pays "a dividend of 7½ per centage. The actual "profits would warrant 11 per centage, but the "difference is applied to the reserve."

A pleasant incident occurred on the East River bridge one day last week. Although Mayors Edson and Low are trustees of the bridge by virtue of their offices neither of them had previously ventured upon the structure. It so happened that both undertook to escort parties of friends across it. They met near the middle of the bridge, and the meeting was followed by general congratulations.—[N. Y. Tribune.

Judge Moran of Chicago, is a man for whom the women of this country must entertain feelings of the deepest horror and indignation. He has announced from the bench his opinion that a woman who marries and finds after a while that her husband snores, and that he has not all the elegance of manners that are expected in her ideal, cannot obtain a divorce in Illinois. Judge Moran is a man of no true aesthetic feeling, and perhaps he has never suffered.—[New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Visit to Pueblo Indians

Correspondence of the Springfield Republican.

Tesuque (Te-su-kee), a colony of Pueblo Indians numbering about one hundred inhabitants, is situated on the western bank of the Rio Tesuque, nine miles to the north of Santa Fe. The drive was made comfortable for us by taking a covered ambulance. The houses are adobe and are two stories high. The second story, the one that the Indians prefer to live in, is built back about six feet on all sides from the walls on the first story, and is reached by ladders from the outside. Our first visit was to the governor's house. Climbing the ladder, we entered a room open on one side to the air, and on the adobe floor were spread mats of hide. A quasi sofa ran along one side of the room; pictures hung on the whitened walls, and on the sofa were some sewing materials and some pieces of new calico. The whole of one side of this room was occupied by an open fire place, which would be considered a luxury in many a more pretentious house, and hanging in it were some iron kettles. Going through an open doorway that led into the second room, we found a woman on her knees grinding corn. As I noticed that there was a mill for grinding corn in every house, it seems to me to be worthy of a close description. In one corner against the wall, allowing simply room enough between it and the wall for the woman to kneel, is an adobe bin, about a foot and a half high. This bin is partitioned into three subdivisions, and, in each space there is a flat stone, set at an angle of about forty five degrees. The woman, kneeling, grinds the corn by rubbing it between this flat stone and an oblong one, resembling a rolling pin, which she holds in her hands, and runs up and down on the flat stone, very much as women rub clothes on a washboard. The meal thus ground is made into dough by mixing it with water and the piece of dough flattened into griddle cakes and baked on a hot stone over an open fire, form their tortillas (tor-tee-yas), or bread. In appearance it resembles johnny cake, and with dried meat, it forms their chief article of food.

The cleanliness of the rooms is noticeable. The floors are adobe, and the adobe walls are nicely whitewashed and have a dado of yellow. Nearly every room has two fireplaces in it, a large one to cook by, and a small one, on an opposite side of the room, for cheer. A curious device in several of the houses attracted our attention. It was a cradle made by swinging a board with ropes at each corner to a rafter in the ceiling, and so hung that when it is swung to and fro the board is always horizontal. The baby is tied into this, and hoops are so arranged over his head that he may be completely covered over, to keep off the flies and not be smothered.

Coming into one room and having exchanged the usual salutation of "Coma le va, Senor," we found a man weaving a girdle. He was seated on the floor and had fastened the warp at one end to the wall, the other end being fastened around his body. He worked away most persistently, raising the strands, shoving the shuttle through, beating the wool into place and so on, over and over again line by line and inch by inch, thus spending a whole day in making a single girdle, which is an indispensable article of the female attire. In another room was an Indian woman, sitting peacefully at her door. The work of the house having been done, she was sewing on some bleached cotton, and looking the perfect picture of quiet contentment. In another room we found a woman kneeling before the fire, the perspiration rolling off of her, and she was baking tortillas. Still another woman was roasting corn over a small fire, and another still was on her knees washing some dishes of ordinary stone china in scarcely a cupful of water. In nearly every room were strings of meat hanging to dry, and the walls were hung with crucifixes, pictures of the Virgin, etc.

One object of our search was for Navajo blankets, of which we found several pretty ones in this pueblo. One beautiful blanket was held at "treinta pesos" by an old blind Indian, who stoutly asserted that it had cost him "mucho caballo" in a bargain with a Navajo and on our refusing to buy, he bade us an adios, saying that whether we bought it or not we would still be friends. Under some peach trees in a little orchard we found a couple of women painting pottery, and we bought some little trinkets as souvenirs. In the center of the pueblo was a church, and at its side hung a silvery toned bell. Most of the Pueblo Indians have embraced the Roman Catholic faith and are subject to the dictum of the priest. They observe Sunday and rest from their labors. In an isolated adobe hut, occupied by an old woman, we found a Spanish prayer book which is the only printed matter I recall as having seen in the pueblo. We remarked in some of the houses the strange contrast between their primitive style of living and the trunks, parasols and umbrellas that we saw around, or between their simple manner of cooking and the iron kettles and ornamented crockery which they used.

James I and the Puritans

The British Quarterly Review.

When James I came to the throne both Catholics and Puritans looked alike with hungry hearts for his favor. He was destined to disappoint both friend and foe. Few monarchs have presented a stranger mixture than he did. The Defender of the Faith, he presided over one of the filthiest courts of Europe. A dabbler in book learning he scented to the very element of the art of ruling. A mighty master of words, he knew little of nothing of men and affairs. A man not devoid of natural shrewdness or of acquired wisdom, he was never able to utilize his wisdom for the practical purposes of life. He seemed to be a Solomon in reputation, and yet he was a Rehoboam in policy. There were many reasons why the Puritan struggle did not come to a head in the reign of Elizabeth. The Protestant battle, which, though inclusive of the Puritan, was yet a wider one, had to be fought in her time. The succession to the throne, moreover, kept the people in a constant state of disquietude. As death approached the hand of the queen was less strenuous and the Puritans breathed more freely. When James came to the throne and avowed his belief in the divine right of absolute monarchy, it became evident that the cause of people versus despotism would have to be fought to the bitter end. But this constitutional struggle involved that deeper question of liberty for all religious parties which the Pilgrims alone fully grasped. The pope's supremacy had been repudiated but the king's existed in its place, and crown rights, therefore, included sway over conscience, opinion, and forms of worship. The personal attitude of the monarch under such circumstances was all important. Power had not yet passed to parliament, and James was doing his best to rob parliament of the small vestiges of authority which it seemed still to retain. The gunpowder plot put an end to the hopes of the Catholics, and the Hampton Court conference was a means of informing the Puritans that the king intended to "harry them out of the kingdom." There was to be uniformity in the church, and very soon the screw was tightened in all parts of the kingdom, so that 300 clergymen were unbeneficed and reduced to silence. Despotism began its work, and, as usual, touched the best citizens first and affronted their deepest susceptibilities. The inevitable revolt which was hastening on to a field of blood began at once. The advance guard of freedom led the defense, and in their very defeat showed others the way to victory. The first to point the road and lead the onward march against tyranny were not the Puritans and not the Reformers, but that small and despised band which receives but scant justice from some of our historians, known by the name of the Separatists. They led the forlorn hope. They had already grasped the essential principles of freedom and their testimony and sufferings have laid a firm and unshaken basis on which the constitutional liberties of America and England have been slowly built.

Common-sense Remedy.

SALICYLICA.

No More Rheumatism, Gout or Neuralgia.

Immediate Relief Warranted.
Permanent Cure Guaranteed.

Five years established and never known to fail in a single case, acute or chronic. Refer to all prominent physicians and druggists for the standing of Salicylica.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS

SALICYLICA is known as a common sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

REMEMBER

that SALICYLICA is a certain cure for RHEUMATISM, GOUT and NEURALGIA. The most intense pains are subdued almost instantly.

Vigor of Youth.

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleans the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric, yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an agreeable perfume.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Personal and Other Notes.

Another college announces that Mr. Jason Gould is still laid up and will not probably be able to work for several days.

Miss Winifred Estabrook left town yesterday. She will spend a short time in Denver and will then go to her home in Michigan for the summer. Her return here next year is probable. Last Saturday she was given a farewell party by a number of friends. A pleasant evening was passed—the following toasts forming part of the entertainment: "A legal document" (a joint invitation from the boys to the girls) responded to by F. L. Cooper; "the uses of ice," by R. D. McLeod; "In Childhood's Happy Hours," by J. D. Ellsworth; "Surprise as an Element of Wit," by C. C. Wright; "Farewell," by L. T. Henry.

Mr. R. D. McLeod will next week go to the mountains. He expects to return to school next autumn.

Mr. Donaldson and Mr. Zug having completed their work, have left us, Mr. Zug going to Gunnison, I understand.

Mr. F. W. Tuckerman, one of last year's graduates of Colorado College and at present a student of the Yale Divinity School, will during the summer vacation preach in Minnesota.

The class in physics is to have a struggle with that terrible subject, the polarization of light.

There has been some thought of having the Kerr oratorical contest the last Saturday of the term, May 26th, but as on that day there will be an excursion to the Grand cañon which some of the contestants wish to go with, the contest may come some other time. The faculty have handed a list of names to Mr. Kerr, from which he will select the judges for the two contests.

Colorado College, as I have had occasion to remark, is not very musical. Music will be needed at the various entertainments at the term, and some of the musicians in town will be asked to assist us. We hope that the calls will meet with a kind response from those interested in the college.

A game of base ball will probably be played to-morrow afternoon at the Association grounds between the Medcalf Club and a nine of college students.

This evening the Occidental club will discuss the Irish question, and the Irving Institute whether machinery is detrimental to the laboring classes.

OUT WEST.

Salida claims to have the best quality of building stone in the state.

Doc Baggs, the notorious confidence man, has again shown up in Colorado.

The Alamosa Independent has been enlarged to an eight-column paper.

Silverton this spring is having one of the liveliest building booms experienced since the town was started.

The Raymond excursion parties have all been right royally entertained by the Durango Board of Trade.

During the month of April 10,000 freight cars were handled in the yards of the Denver & Rio Grande at Pueblo.

It is estimated that the government loses annually about $500,000 by extensive smuggling between Texas and Mexico.

The Denver city council has abolished the office of city scavenger and will hereafter have the work done by contract.

It is expected that there will be a change in the management and policy of the Leadville Herald after the stockholders' meeting, on May 7th.

The Rocky Mountain Detective Association will celebrate its twentieth anniversary by holding a convention in Denver, on the 20th of this month.

Miss Martha F. Hannah, whose husband was killed by a Denver & New Orleans locomotive last December, has begun suit against that corporation for $5,000 damages.

An Arctic Expedition.

COPENHAGEN, May 3.—A Danish Arctic expedition has left for Greenland for the purpose of exploring that country.

Bradlaugh's Triumph.

LONDON, May 3.—Owing to the rejection of the affirmation bill Bradlaugh intends to administer the oath of office to himself. The Daily News says: "By the rejection of the bill the forces of bigotry and intolerance have triumphed."

Cold-blooded Murder.

EAGLE ROCK, Idaho, May 3.—Whitly, a discharged employee of the Utah Northern railway, entered the station to-day, called the station agent, W. B. Green, to the counter and after exchanging a few words fired three shots, each taking effect. Probably fatal injuries were inflicted. Whitly was arrested. It is thought he will be lynched. The shooting grew out of complaint made by Green on which Whitly was discharged.

The System of Simplicity.

New York Tribune.

One of Turgenef's latest tales has a shrewd touch of humor. He recounts how Giafar, the renowned Vizier of Haroun Alraschid, while yet young and undistinguished, rescued a mysterious old man from assassins, and afterward visited this old man at his request. The old man took Giafar by the hand and led him into a garden inclosed by high walls, in the midst of which grew a strange tree, in semblance like a cypress, only its limbs were of an azure hue. Upon this tree hung three apples; one of longish shape and white as milk; the second round and red; the third little, shriveled and yellow. "Youth," said the old man, "pluck and eat one of these apples. If thou eatest the white, thou wilt be the wisest of men; if the red, thou wilt be the richest; if the yellow, thou wilt be singularly acceptable to an old woman. But make speed; the charm loses its virtue within an hour." Giafar ruminated with much perplexity. "If I know everything thought he," "I shall know more than is good for me. If I become too rich other men will envy me. I will eat the yellow apple." And he did so. The old man laughed with his toothless mouth and exclaimed: "Good youth! In sooth thou hast chosen the better part. What need hast thou of the white apple? thou are already wiser than Solomon. Nor needest thou the red apple, either; thou wilt be rich enough without it, and none will envy thee." "Venerable sire," responded Giafar, "deign to indicate to me the dwelling of the august mother of the commander of the faithful." The old man bowed to the ground and showed the way. And Giafar is the greatest subject in Bagdad.

Notice.

Whereas, school district No. 11, El Paso county, Colorado, at its last enumeration, contained a school population of one thousand and fifty-six, it becomes necessary to increase the board of directors to six members. Therefore, at the election of said district to be held May 7th, 1883, there must be four (4) members elected according to the following portion of section 42, regulating the change from a second to a first class district, viz:

"Whenever the annual census of any district shows that the school population of the district numbers one thousand (1,000) or more, at the next annual election thereafter the board of directors of said district shall be increased to six members—four weeks' previous notice thereof being given in some newspaper published in the district—by electing two members for three years, one member for two years, and one member for one year, and the persons so elected, together with the directors whose official terms have not expired, shall constitute the new board, which board shall enter upon the duties prescribed by law for boards of directors of districts of the first class."

Notice of Final Settlement.

In the matter of the estate of John Vandenburgh, deceased. Notice is hereby given, that on Monday, the 28th day of May, A. D. 1883, being one of the regular days of the May term of the county court of El Paso county, in the state of Colorado, I, John E. Wheeler, administrator of said estate, will appear before the judge of said court, present my final settlement as such administrator, pray the approval of the same, and will then apply to be discharged as such administrator. At which time and place any person in interest may appear and present objections to the same if any there be.

Dated at Colorado Springs, Colorado, April 28, 1883.

Code Summons.

STATE OF COLORADO, } ss.
County of El Paso. }

The people of the state of Colorado send greeting:

To Charlotte L. Smith, defendant, above named. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you, by the above named plaintiff, in the county court in and for the county of El Paso, in the state of Colorado, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days, (exclusive of the day of service, if served within this county; or if served out of this county, but in this judicial district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of the complaint.

The said action is brought to dissolve the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant. Cause desertion, as will more fully appear by the complaint on file herein, to which reference is here made.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Given under my hand and the seal of the county court of said El Paso county, at Colorado Springs in said county, this 24th day of March, A. D. 1883.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors, and falling-out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair-dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's Hair Renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world.

In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvellous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs. Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life. The protection it affords, by its timely use in throat and chest disorders, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it never will. From their knowledge of its composition and operation, physicians use the CHERRY PECTORAL extensively in their practice, and clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its healing effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

The sociable which was to have been held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night was postponed.

Messrs. Giddings & Stillman placed a handsome new delivery wagon upon the streets yesterday.

Coroner Perkins, on account of a dearth in business, has declared his intention of making an assignment.

There will be a meeting of Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1 in their rooms in the new city hall to-night at eight o'clock.

On account of the transfer of the telephone wires from the old to new poles there was some difficulty yesterday in talking over the wires.

Messrs. J. F. Peebles, Charles Noble and G. S. Robbins leave this morning for the Big Springs ranch where they will remain during lambing.

The ladies of the Christian church contemplate serving luncheon and ice cream on Decoration day and evening. The place has not yet been determined upon.

Members of the Pike's Peak Lodge No. 88, I. O. O. F., are notified to be at the lodge room at 10 o'clock to-day, to attend the funeral of Brother P. E. Bainter.

Robson & Crane, who appear in Colorado Springs one week from next Saturday, play the "Two Dromios," from Shakespeare's drama, "The Comedy of Errors."

Charles Craig has on exhibition at Sagendorf's drug store a painting of a Rocky mountain sheep that is attracting considerable attention. It has been pronounced by many as one of his best efforts.

Mr. G. S. Robbins requests us to deny the statement published in Wednesday evening's Republic that he was to act as chief clerk of the Antlers, as no such arrangement has been perfected.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday school has elected delegates to the county Sunday school convention as follows: Mrs. C. T. Wilson, Mrs. A. A. Ripley, Mrs. Dr. Marlow, Rev. W. A. Walker, Dr. W. D. Marlow and Mr. W. S. Walker.

Mr. E. G. Phillips, formerly a resident of Colorado Springs, now manager of Messrs. Kerr & Martin's mining properties at Querida, Colo., spent a few hours in Colorado Springs yesterday. He left for Querida on the morning train, accompanied by Mr. F. L. Martin.

H. M. Casey who has a company now engaged in playing a blood and thunder drama entitled "The Gold Hunters of the Black Hills," at Leadville, has written Manager Nye for dates. Mr. Nye replied that he had no open dates and gave as his opinion that the Colorado Springs people would not appreciate a border drama.

Horses, mules, pit cars, blacksmith tools, and other effects of the Denver & New Orleans Construction company, were attached the other day, at Franceville, to satisfy a claim of $3,700 held by the First National bank. The property was subsequently released on a forthcoming bond given by the Construction company.

Messrs. F. M. Dundna & Co.'s new drug store was opened up last night for the first time. The room, although not large, is furnished with prescription case and shelving of black walnut, and with its plate glass front and ornamental gas fixtures presents a very attractive and inviting appearance. When fully fitted up, it will be as neat a little store as there is in Colorado Springs.

The members of the Grand Army of the Republic and ex-union soldiers indulged in military drill at Armory hall last night preparatory for observance of Decoration day.

Mr. Luther Holden, manager of the Raymond excursion party which arrived at Manitou on Wednesday, says that these excursions have been the means of inducing a number of New England people to invest money in mines and ranches both in Colorado and New Mexico. Many who have come with the excursions this year have also declared their intention of investing money.

A telegram was received in this city yesterday stating that Paymaster Wasson, of the U. S. A., who had been robbed of twenty-four thousand dollars on a Texas Pacific train last Sunday was at Colorado City and asking that he be interviewed regarding the robbery. Upon inquiry it was ascertained that there was no such man there and it is presumed that the old territorial capital was mixed up with Colorado City, Texas.

The New Orleans Democrat has the following to say of the Harrisons who are to appear at the opera house to-morrow night:

There never was a more comical concert more comically completed and consummated than that of the "Photos" of Alice and Louis Harrison. This year that mimic gallery will flock with more grotesque customers, will show more startlingly eccentric tableaux and be the scene of more vivid, variegated and sublime fun and nonsense than ever before. The mirth moving effects and comical conglomerations concocted in the brain of the operators of the camera of comedy are the quintessence of laugh provoking monstrosities, quaintness and outrageings of all possibilities, but the mirth is pure and harmless, innocence marks every word and act, and the animated caricatures who pose themselves for the delight and hearty amusement of the audience are ladies and gentlemen of artistic skill, whose excellence is demonstrated by the ease with which they so thoroughly portray the ridiculous position and characters represented. It is their art that enables them to be nonsensical without offense, to be wonderfully funny yet never indicate. "The play, the play's the thing," as Hamlet says, and all play, good play, pure play and live play is "Photos" as given by Alice and Louis Harrison with their great company.

STATE OF COLORADO, } ss.

To O. H. Platt, one of the heirs at law of Georgiana Platt, deceased:

Whereas, an instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Georgiana Platt, late of said county, deceased, has been presented by Phebe J. Losee, of Colorado Springs, El Paso county, Colorado, to the county court of said county, for probate, and the 28th day of May, 1883, has been set for hearing the application for the probate of said instrument as the said last will and testament of said Georgiana Platt, deceased; said instrument devising the following described property, viz: Lots No. seventeen and eighteen (17 and 18) in block No. one hundred and eleven (111) in the city of Colorado Springs, El Paso county, Colorado.

You are therefore hereby notified to be and appear before the county court of El Paso county, at the court house in Colorado Springs on the 28th day of May, A. D. 1883, there and then to attend the probate of said will before said court.

Witness, E. A. Colburn, Judge of the said county court and the seal thereof, at [SEAL] Colorado Springs, in said county, this 21st day of April, A. D. 1883.
